ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY INSPECTS HOSPITAL UNIT FOR ETHIOPIA

The fully equipped mobile hospital unit of the British Ambulance Service in Ethiopia with doctors, transport officers, non-commissioned officers, and men, together with transport consisting of 16 trucks and equipment, was inspected and blessed by the Archbishop of Canterbury before sailing. The picture shows some of the motor transports and members of the service lined up in the courtyard of St. Thomas Hospital, London, while the Archbishop of Canterbury, extreme right, holds conversation with one of the members of the expedition.

FLOODS PLAY HAVOC IN SOUTH OF ENGLAND

Floods have been so severe in various parts of the British Isles during the past two weeks that some roads have become swift-flowing rivers. In the picture is seen a flooded road near Watlington, Kent, which is so completely under water that the "No Limit" signals have been placed as a warning to motorists that the water is more than three feet deep.

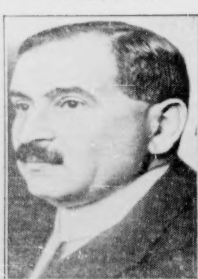

SWEDEN PREPARES FOR GAS THREAT IN NEXT WAR

Prince Carl, left, president of the Red Cross in Sweden, is shown intensely interested in a demonstration of the use of gas masks and clothing by nurses. There are 2,500 nurses training in Sweden for the purpose of becoming efficient in the use of protection methods against an attack by poison gas.

"MIRACLE CURE" AMAZES DOCTORS

A young British airman, Sergeant George Rende, broke his back when his automobile turned over in a ditch over a year ago, and his case was considered hopeless. However, he was transferred to the National Hospital for Diseases of the Nervous System, in London, and has made a remarkable recovery. Here the courageous young flier is seen writing a letter while being propped up in bed.

UPHELD

Pierre Laval, Premier of France, faced the Chamber of Deputies the other day with the knowledge that he might be thrown out of office. However, the Deputies voted confidence in his ability to bring the nation out of the economic distress which it has suffered.

KING'S SISTER DIES

LONDON, Dec. 9. — Princess Victoria, sister of the King, died early today.

REPLACED

Right Hon. Sir H. Thomas, British Secretary of State for the Dominions, has been made Colonial Secretary, and Malcolm MacDonald, son of Ramsay MacDonald, has been made Dominions Secretary in his place. This is considered an astute move on the part of Premier Baldwin and may pave the way to reconciliation with the Irish Free State.

WHAT ONE GIRL WORE

By Betty Brownlee

The hostess gown deserves special consideration at this time for two reasons. In the first place, the pre-holiday season ushers in a more formal aspect toward entertainment of all kinds, even in intimate saloons, satheries; and secondly, the hostess gown makes one of the most delightful Christmas gifts to consider for the smart and fastidious woman.

Not so long ago, the hostess gown was considered an absolute luxury. The average woman did not feel that one was needed to complete her wardrobe. But not so today. The hostess gown has been glorified to the point where it is not only used on those few occasions when one wishes to entertain in the home in a semi-formal manner but the new gowns are so lovely that many women wear them outside of the home—for dinner theatre, and even dancing.

In many cases it is difficult to distinguish between the new hostess gowns and the tailored dinner gowns which are at the crest of popularity today. There are more elaborate ones, too, which feature draperies, shirring, and jeweled trimmings, separate Accents and trains. Both in black and in dramatic colors, they are today an invaluable wardrobe necessity.

This week we illustrate a hostess gown which is equally suitable for dinner wear. It is in black Lyons velvet, cut in tailored lines and featuring gold buttons all the way down the front. The lower part of the skirt is left open to reveal the ankle and a bit of the leg in intriguing fashion, and the back, which is seams at both sides, terminates in a slight train. Patch pockets are poised at the breast.

Here and There

OTTAWA, Dec. 8. Imperial trans-Atlantic Airways conference ended Monday night after approving unanimously a start of survey flights next year and an experimental air mail service some afterwards. Establishment of a regular trans-Atlantic air mail and passenger service calling for a minimum schedule of two flights each way every week should follow experimental flights.

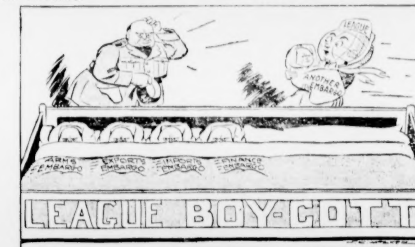

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8. — Secretary of Commerce contended today his November 21 remarks about exports to Italy and France had been "misunderstood" and that he had only asked for compliance with the administration's efforts to hold up shipments of "munitions." His expressions in question had been almost exclusively interpreted as calling upon the oil industry to hold up oil shipments to the warring nations.

GOLDENBELLS, Sask. Dec. 8. — Fear that a gun battle paralleling that of R.C.M.P. and Albert Johnson, "The Mad Trapper" of Rat River in 1932, when Johnson was killed, was dissipated at Smead Island Monday when John Harms, 65, Athabasca Lake trapper, wanted for murder of his partner Johnny Anthony, surrendered to Sergeant Vernon, R.C.M.P., without a struggle.

LATEST NEWS FLASHES

CAIRO, Egypt, Dec. 12.—King Fuad signed a royal decree today restoring constitutional government to Egypt. Great Britain consented to Egypt's return to the self-government form of the suspended 1923 constitution on the day the cabinet of Premier Tewfik Nassif Pasha was to resign.

The constitution provides for a senate and chamber of deputies and takes control of Egypt's internal affairs out of British hands. It does not, however, affect Britain's control of Egyptian foreign affairs nor the British military protectorate.

GENEVA, Dec. 12.—The Council of the League of Nations will be summoned in special session next Wednesday. This was decided today after Anthony Eden proposed to the committee of 15 that the Council be called at the earliest possible moment to hear a full statement of the Franco-British plan for ending war in East Africa.

The committee of 15 will meet again Friday and continue to consider the offer of ending sanctions against Italy. It will not take up, however, the proposed embargo on oil, coal, iron and steel.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—Representatives of four governments combined today to remove one of the principal obstacles to early inauguration of regular trans-Atlantic air services for passengers and mail. British, United States, Irish and Canadian officials agreed in principle to extend reciprocal landing and operating privileges in their countries for such service, and it was indicated that experimental flights might start next spring.

CAIRO, Egypt, Dec. 11.—New street riots flared in Cairo tonight, unquenched by announcement that the cabinet of Premier Tewfik Nassif Pasha had accepted to Nationalist demands and decided to resign. Crowds smashed ten street cars, burning two of them, stoned a gas station and wrecked street lamps in a fresh outbreak of the anti-British disorders which have claimed eight lives in recent weeks. King Fuad, ruler of this nominally independent kingdom, was thought to have no alternative but to suppress the present administration with a united and aggressive anti-British government.

VIENNA, Dec. 11.—Prince Ernst von Starhemberg, Austria's great-grandson, called for Austrian leadership of the Germanic nations in a bold challenge tonight to Adolf Hitler. Then he declared the way for the restoration of the Hapsburgs by declaring the destinies of the nation and its one-time royal house were identical, and by asserting nothing stands in the way of the return of the Archduke Otto if he accepts the national program of the assassinated Premier Engelbert Dollfuss.

NANKING, Dec. 11.—The Japanese Embassy verbally warned the Chinese foreign office tonight against any recurrence of anti-Japanese activities such as the demonstration of 5,000 students yesterday.

GENEVA, Dec. 11.—Portuguese of the oil and iron sanctions, which were to have been taken up by the committee of 15 Thursday, is generally considered in League of Nations circles. The serious nature of the crisis confronting the League of Nations over the Franco-British plan for peace in Ethiopia was indicated by the announcement that Thursday's opening session of the committee would be postponed four hours.

LONDON, Dec. 12.—Japan's demand for equality in naval strength was rejected at the International Naval Conference today by the four other great naval powers and the dominions. British, American and Italian delegates, led by Britain, flatly rejected the Japanese proposal while France expressed opposition chiefly on grounds of procedure. The meeting broke up at noon with the Japanese leaving angrily.

PEIPING, China, Dec. 10.—Chinese sources reported today an invading Manchukuo army, using tanks and aeroplanes, had driven the special police of southeast Chahar into the city of Kuyuan, after a battle in which many were killed. The Japanese-directed empire of Manchukuo thus gained control of more Chinese territory.

TATSFIELD, Kent, Dec. 10.—Eleven persons were killed today when a Belgian air liner crashed in a rain-swept English valley. Seven of the victims were passengers, four were members of the crew.

LEITHBRIDGE, Dec. 10.—Sixteen men died today Monday when a terrific explosion ripped through the Leithbridge colliery at Colnburth, 10 miles northwest of here. All the bodies have been recovered, badly burned and crushed. Cause of the explosion is unknown.

It was evident, the rescue workers said, that the miners had died instantly. Testifying to the force of the explosion was the fact that workers far from the place in the southeast end where the 16 died, felt the force sufficiently to be thrown down. And to suffer burns serious enough to require hospital treatment, as a soaring flame shot through the tunnels.

OTTAWA, Dec. 9.—While the federal government is understood to be planning to refund the debts of the provinces at reduced interest rates, Alberta will not be included in the program unless the Alberta government agrees to refund the debts of the province which desire its interest rates cut will have to surrender to a new national loan board the control of its future borrowing.

Would Like Company
"Now, in case anything should go wrong with this experiment," said the professor of chemistry, "we and the laboratory with us will be blown sky high. Now, come a little closer boys, in order that you may follow me."

TUBERCULOSIS
"The decline of the tuberculosis death rate in this country to one-third its 1900 level is not an accident. On the contrary, it is an outstanding example of what should now be done in the fight against tuberculosis. There is some real danger lest there be a feeling that the fight is won, resulting in a falling off of energetic opposition, and thus allowing the disease to regain some of the ground it has lost."

The public provide the money to equip and maintain clinics and sanatoria, public health nurses and others who work day after day seeking to overcome this disease. The same public have a perfect right to ask how their money is used and what results are being attained.

The remarkable success of the campaign against tuberculosis is that results have been secured despite the fact that no specific means have been discovered to prevent or cure the disease. We rely upon early diagnosis and treatment of the disease, and the separation of the sick from the well, particularly children, as we to prevent the spread of the disease.

A common effort which has brought doctors, nurses, social workers, employers and employees into this campaign has achieved results. It requires money. It requires courage, persistence and determination. We can, if we will, make tuberculosis a comparatively rare disease.

One way in which everyone may play a part at this season of the year is to give and use Christmas Seals. The money you spend on such seals is used to strengthen the forces which combat this deadly enemy. To buy seals makes you a participant in the campaign to bring about the forces of health and happiness against disease and misery.

To question the health addressed to the Canadian Medical Association, the College St. Toronto, will be answered personally by letter.
